Friends and relatives in Barre of Gen. Pershing's band, which has been the official music-maker at general headquarters in France and wherever else overseas special music was desired, formerly known as the 1st Vermont band, are much interested in the statement made in a recent Boston Post that the band already had sailed for the United States. It was known that a request had been made of General Pershing that he allow this band to come back home to assist in the raising of the Victory loan, but nothing definite had been learned from members of the band itself, General Pershing having the matter under consideration when late letters arrived from the boys.
